FOREWORD

What is Yadkinville School?

It is a group of buildings--classrooms, gymnasium, auditorium, lunchroom--every roof that shelters the people of the school.

It is a group of activities--classes, clubs, athletics--every organization that is offered here for the advancement of the students.

It is a group of people--administrators, faculty members, pupils, workers--everyone who in some way contributes to the growth of the school.

It is a spirit--faith, loyalty, devotion--every intangible tie that binds the students to their Alma Mater.

Buildings, activities, people, spirit--all this is Yadkinville School, symbolized by the Hornet as mascot--hustling and bustling for the good of the school, but fighting and stinging in its defense.

DEDICATION

Respectfully, humbly, and lovingly, we dedicate The YADKINIAN of 1954 to OUR PARENTS.

From the day our mothers washed our faces, dressed us in our best, and sent us to school the first day, until the time for receiving our diplomas, it has been their interest, their understanding, their encouragement, and their love that have made the way possible for us.

If we have been a success, it is because of their expectations of us. Any honor bestowed upon us is an honor to them.

This dedication, then, is our small way of expressing our love and gratitude to our parents.

CLASS POEM

By Ouida Brown

We, the Class of Fifty-Four,
Have reached our goal at last.
We've made friends that we adore;
Their friendship we'll hold fast.

Our teachers and our parents dear
Will guide us on our way
Both in our joy and in our fear
And on our Graduation Day.

Our Alma Mater will remain
In every heart and mind,
And may we ever strive to gain
The knowledge that we left behind.

CLASS HISTORY

DATES TO BE REMEMBERED

SEPTEMBER, 1950. Seventy-two freshmen--fifteen of them from Forbush--entered the ninth grade at Yadkinville.

In Mrs. Elva Hoots' homeroom section, officers were Frances Harding, president; Bettye Redding, secretary; Thurmond Phillips, treasurer; and Mattie Cranfill, reporter. Mr. Herbert Cameron's homeroom officers were Keith Howell, president; Nellie Holcomb, secretary; Norma Todd, treasurer; and Velna Hall, reporter.

The main event that year was a trip made to Chapel Hill by Miss Ethel Marie Hall's science classes to see the planetarium and other points of interest.

SEPTEMBER, 1951. Taking part in more of the school's activities, the sophomores began to lose the greenness of freshman days.

Officers in Miss Beverly Moore's section of the tenth grade were Marcus Hawks, president; Jimmy Martin, vice president; Jimmy Vestal, secretary; Robert Williams, treasurer; Barbara Howell, reporter. In Mrs. Mary Louise Buchanan's section, Reta Peoples was president; Thurmond Phillips, vice president; Ouida Brown, secretary; Norma Todd, treasurer; and L. L. Mason, reporter.

SEPTEMBER, 1952. The class emerged as jolly juniors under the sponsorship of Mrs. Susan Steelman and Mrs. Elva Hoots.

In connection with their study of United States History, the class, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bridgewater, made a trip to Williamsburg, Virginia.

Later in the year, the history teachers, Mr. Max Welborn, Mr. Bill Bridgewater, and Mr. Bill Cheek, a practice teacher, took the history classes to Salisbury to see President Dwight D. Eisenhower who spoke at Rowan County's Centennial Celebration.

MARCH 27, 1953. The juniors entertained the seniors at the annual Junior-Senior Banquet which was held in the gymnasium. A Dutch theme was carried out in the decorations.

Other events were the ordering of the class rings, election of the annual staff, and making the daisy chain for the seniors' class night.

SEPTEMBER, 1953. Fifty-two members of the class began their senior year with Mrs. Logene Hood and Mr. James Everidge as sponsors.

Class officers were Johnny Reece, president; Robert Williams, vice president; Gerry Hutchins, secretary; Thurmond Phillips, treasurer; and Ouida Brown, reporter.

OCTOBER 20, 1953. Two seniors, JoAnne Hutchens and Alma Slater, passed away as a result of injuries received in an automobile accident October 16.

MAY 2-7, 1954. Carrying out their plans made many weeks in advance, the Seniors made their trip to Washington, D. C.

Other spring activities which kept them busy were the Junior-Senior Banquet, the senior play, and class night.

MAY 29, 1954. Graduation exercises were held for the forty-eight members of the Class of 1954.

BETA CLUB

The Beta Club is a club exclusively for students who have a scholastic average of A, and are approved by the faculty on the basis of character, leadership, and achievement.

Each year the Beta Club's aim is to carry out a project for the betterment of the school. The main project this year was selling ice cream in the elementary school.

A Beta Club Convention for the members is held in some city every year. Any member of the club is eligible to attend this convention.

Working only on a temporary basis, the Student Council in its beginning year is composed of the presidents and vice-presidents from each of the eight homerooms in high school.

Soon after it was organized, the Council visited other schools to observe their Student Councils. With this information, they plan to write a constitution for Yadkinville High School.

In the spring, if the constitution is accepted by the student body, Student Council and Student body officers will be elected.

LIBRARY STAFF

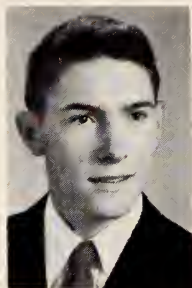

The Library Staff, under the direction of the librarian, keeps an accurate record of all books checked out, bought or lost. The staff keeps the books dusted and prepare the new books for distribution.

Beginning the season with seven seniors, four juniors, three sophomores, and two freshmen, the Yadkinville girls' basketball team gave their opponents a good fight. Later, when the team personnel shifted to four seniors, three juniors, three sophomores, and two freshmen, the fighting spirit was stronger than ever and the girls won their share of the games.

As the season neared the half-way mark, the starting line-up included Libby Smith, Ouida Brown, Gertrude Wall, Gilly Ann Wagoner, Shirley Myers, and Jane Hobson.
